How Do I Know What They Know and Understand? Instant Math Assessment Techniques With Beatrice Moore Luchin

April 29, 2010 (Registration Deadline: April 22, 2010)

9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. (Registration time: 8:30 a.m.)

The Eagle Room, Hilton Garden Inn, Downtown Freeport

Participants will become aware of research in thinking, metacognition, and higher order cognitive processing with direct applications to mathematics teaching and learning. Hands-on and interactive activities will be used to illustrate how questioning techniques, writing activities and graphic organizers may be used as instant assessment tools in the mathematics classroom.

By the end of the session, participants will . . .

- Understand how the use of effective questioning strategies supports preparation of students for the rigor of various assessments including ACCESS for ELLs®, PAAP, MEA, NECAP, ACT, SAT, etc.
- Expand their understanding of various assessment strategies for individual and small group instruction.
- Develop an understanding of the nature and function of questions related to increasing mathematical content knowledge.
- Develop skills in question construction.
- Learn how content and academic vocabulary can be developed and assessed through the uses of appropriate questioning strategies and the use of graphic organizers.

Presenter: Beatrice Moore Luchin is an outstanding mathematics educator who genuinely cares about children and is passionate about the teaching of mathematics. She has devoted her 28-year career to working with struggling students, especially in the area of mathematics.
