Response to Intervention (RTI)

June 2, 2009 (Registration Deadline: May 26, 2009)

4:00 - 7:00 p.m. (Registration time: 3:30 p.m.)

Morse High School, Bath, Maine

Response to Intervention (RTI) is a framework for defining how a school or district will meet the needs of all their students before they actually fail. Participants in this session will learn what the basic understandings of RTI are and they will learn how the state has defined this framework. They will receive a copy of Maine's Response to Intervention Planning Guide and learn about additional resources available to support schools and districts as they evaluate where they are, plan, and move towards implementation of an RTI framework.

Outcomes:

- ♥ A Resource Booklet explaining RTI.
- ♥ Models and suggestions for how one conducts an RTI meeting.
- ♥ An explicit detailing of what RTI is.
- ♥ A better fund of knowledge of how intervention may be delivered in your school.

Presenter: Ellen Holmes is a National Board Certified Teacher who currently serves as a Distinguished Educator at the Department of Education. She works on a variety of teacher quality issues that include Professional Learning Communities, National Board Certification, and Response to Intervention.

Workshop fee of $65.00 includes hearty snacks and handouts. Handouts will be available digitally for participants who would like to bring their laptops. Discounts available: $5.00 discount for registering or preregistering online using C-vent. Our cancellation policy is 72 hours prior to the event. You will be expected to pay if you do not attend and cannot provide printed confirmation of your cancellation.

Three Clock Hours will be awarded.

Cosponsors: Maine Support Network, the Maine Chapter of the Council for Exceptional Children, and the Maine Department of Education.

On-site facilitators: Corda Ladd Kinzie, Central Region Facilitator.

This workshop is designed for regular education teachers, administrators, special education teachers, educational technicians, and early childhood providers.
